Call for Research Ideas/Proposals and Research Papers to be presented at the

1st Accounting History SIG Virtual Workshop on 12 January 2021, 9.00-11.00

Deadline for submission: Thursday, 17 December 2020

The Accounting History Special Interest Group (AHSIG) of BAFA is delighted to invite you to attend and/or present at the first in our series of workshops in accounting history.

Attendance and participation is free.

This call is open to early career researchers, PhD students, or experienced researchers located anywhere in the world. We would particularly welcome ideas for research in accounting history that you would like discussed by a panel of experienced accounting historians. New papers shall also be considered. Any paper presented will have a discussant, followed by comments from the audience.

The workshop will also include a plenary talk by Dr Adam Nix of De Montford University on methodological considerations in the use of digital sources when conducting accounting history research.

Please send an outline of your research idea/proposal or draft paper to:
